Chant to Earth Mother

In the heart of the Mother I was born.

In the heart of the Mother I will return.

I am the heart of Earth Mother

I feel her force in my remembering now.

Who are you Earth Mother? Who are you really?

I am the force of remembering which brought you to my planet. I am the force of remembering who you are.

I sing my song to you Earth Mother.

I sing my song through your matrices and ley lines.

I sing my song to feel your overwhelming presence in my beingness.

Who am I Earth Mother? Who are you?

You are my child - I am your mother.

Every breath is mine, every thought is mine, every heartbeat is mine.

I am the force of your remembered heart. Remember me Earth Mother.

Remember me.
